

INSTEAD OF EXPLANATION AND LOGIC,

When children want something they can't have, adults usually respond with logical explanations of why they can't have it. Often the harder we explain, the harder they protest.