Sharing and Caring Begins with You and Me

Sharing is caring.

We can do our part to protect our world.
A little good deed goes a long way.

Playing an active role in the community

Children are never too young to learn to be responsible young ones.

Sharing is caring and let's all give a helping hand to those in need.

The children's art work and magnets were sold for events such as Start Small Dream Big 2016 and Saving the World, Love Water. All proceeds were donated to The President's Challenge Fund 2016.

We collected an amount of $1,103.00 from the sale of crafts, artwork, drinks and food.

At MFS JKC, we believe that together, we can educate our children and be a caring society. We respect all races, ages, and everyone in the community. We are role models for our children to understand socially acceptable behaviour.

Everyone can do their part.

"Happy to be on board this project as we are able to give back to the society in ways that we are able to"

It is the first time that the children are participating in this Start Small Dream Big Project where they will be involved in the process of running a charity bake sale to raise funds for the organization, "Rainbow Centre". Together with the teacher, the children were involved in the initial planning of what they would like to do to raise funds, to the actual running of the charity sale, including making of the baked goods to selling them to the parents and residents in the neighbourhood.

Through this project, the children will learn the value of giving and sharing to those less fortunate.

They had training classes before celebrating the fruits of their labour on 12th August 2016, during our Charity Fundraising Event. We were honoured to have our Area Director, Ms. Lili Chee, to commemorate the event. The funds were donated to Viriya Community Services and The Red Pencil. The purpose of the holiday project "Start Small, Dream Big" is to encourage children to give back to society. They would also learn about empathy, compassion and also engage in eco-friendly practices at home like getting children to clean up the community, make friends with the elderly, help out with household chores or donate toys to the charity. There was a Parents' Workshop cum Kindness Gift Exchange, where recycled items were used to do art, followed by a centre tour to look at the various recycled artwork that the children were engaged in for the past month. Teachers contributed old pipes and shoes or bags with parent's help to set up the community garden with plastics bottles and Styrofoam boxes.

Save & Love, Our One & only Earth

Parents from all classes came to support the event

Children (Playgroup class) came up with handmade artworks prior to the event

Johan (K2 Class) rendered support in selling the items

Using barter trade, these handmade crafts were exchanged with dry rations or daily essentials that will be donated to our community partners

As part of the Start Small Dream Big initiative together with President's Challenge, we had our annual fund-raising event for two community partners this year, namely Children's Society and SPD @ Toa Payoh. This year, the children were actively involved in the fund-raising. The Centre upcycled recyclable items into useful products for trade-in. Through this upcycling, children learnt the importance of saving our Earth by reusing resources around us. To add on to the excitement of the good cause event, we invited MP for Bishan Toa Payoh GRC, Mr Saktiandi, to grace the event as well as to mingle with the parents.

My First Skool at Blk 18 Marine Terrace has a great vision for our little children. We approached various community partners to work hand-in-hand in giving back to the society. We partnered with Marine Terrace Breeze Residents' Committee in their 'Gotong-Royong Saturdays' where the little children got their families to contribute something for someone else who needed them more. We initiated a 'Community Appreciation' Week where they showed appreciation to the animal rescuers and rangers in conserving the environment for the animals. Little kids with BIG DREAMS grow into BIG PEOPLE with BIG MISSIONS for life!
-Karen Salmansohn-

Children watched a video on the elderly and it triggered their curiosity of what happens at an elderly home. Riding on the children's interest, the teacher planned for activities that allowed the children to explore with the support equipment used by the elderly; the type of food that they eat; appropriate activities that they engage in. A donation drive was also carried out where parents contributed healthy food products for the elderly. At the end of the project, children made a trip to Foo Hai Elderly Lodge where they performed, played simple games and did a massage and craft activity with the elderly there. Some of the parents from the class also assisted during the trip to the elderly lodge.

A small act of kindness can make a big difference to others. The children from My First Skool Sembawang, joined ECDA's project to provide an opportunity for the children to reach out to the elders and learn values such as kindness and compassion, love, and the spirit of giving. The children from the Toddler Group to K2 used various materials to create different art pieces like greeting cards, wire sculptures, photo frames, rainbow shirts etc. to showcase at an art gallery in the centre. The parents were invited to do barter trading with goods for the children's art pieces. The goods collected were given to the elders at St. Luke's Hospital. Elders were entertained by the children through their performance.

Nice to meet you, Sir!

On 3 June 2016, children from My First Skool Senja visited the elderly at Bo Tien Activity Centre for the Elderly, located at Blk 125 Pending Road.

Children performed and mingled with the elderly at Bo Tien. This field trip provided opportunities for children to interact with the elderly, raise awareness of the ageing population in Singapore and promote inter-generational understanding.

The Kindergarten 2 children performed a dance titled "The World is a Rainbow", Kindergarten 1 children sang "Do-Re-Mi", and Nursery children sang "You Are My Sunshine". We were glad for the chance to bring smiles to the faces of the elderly, and hope that we brightened their day. We wish that everyday will be a happy day for everyone!

Our school held a theatre performance on 8th August 2016, at 10 Sq @ Orchard Central, with our children as the "Little Artiste on Stage". The K2 children rewrote scripts of familiar animal-themed fables, and together with their younger schoolmates (Toddler to K1) and parents, staged their scripts on stage.

That night, we raised funds for a good cause via proceeds from ticket sales, benefiting local animal welfare non-profit organization, Causes for Animals (CAS). # Water Fun Day

In preparation for Water Fun Day, the children had many interesting experiences with water. They can't wait to share about it with everyone!

Every drop counts! Children did their own pledges to save water.

The children have so much that they want to share about water. They had a whole year of questions, explorations, experiences and conclusions. The children shared with their parents about what they learnt through a showcase. They also created a song to teach the younger children in school to save water.

On 8 September 2016, everyone took part in Water Fun Day in school. The children learnt new ways of saving water at home and in school through various activities such as making sensory bottles, making bubbles and having a boat race with recycled water. The K2 children also got the public to do pledges to save water as well. How exciting!

Children are never too young to start doing something for the society. We started off our project with caring for the elderly and bringing help to them.

Our children visited All Saint's Home to serve and mingle with the elderly. They also planned on what they like to donate to the elderly home with the support of their parent.

Beside serving elderly in the community, we also like the children to show love and care to the elderly living with them. The children planned the activity they want to do with them and carried it out at home.

Teachers at MY World @ Tampines Central led the children into the Water Conservation Project by exploring how they can contribute to the well-being of their environment in positive ways.

Children went on a learning journey- the fruitful outcome of this learning journey was that they discovered that "Water is precious and we cannot waste it".

We are wiping the table after our meal.

Helping out at home.

Extending on last year's Start Small Dream Big project "Kindness Alert...We Care Too!", this year, we continued to instill good moral values and educate our children that kindness is not limited to the elderly. We provided our children with the opportunity to "Helping out at Home" by working closely with parents. The children brainstormed on ideas of how they may help out at home. They identified "Life Skills" such as folding clothes and wiping the table before and after meals to help out in small ways followed by achieving their "big dream" of using the skills obtained to help out in the community. With the new skills attained, they revisit and serve the elderly at "Kheng Chiu Happy Lodge" on the 22nd September 2016.
